

Appeal after animal sculptures stolen from shopping village in Devon

Officers investigating the theft of a number of sculptures taken from Darts Farm Shopping Village near Exeter have released pictures of the stolen items.

It has been reported that nine animal head sculptures were removed from their stands using a chainsaw and then stolen between Sunday 7 July and Monday 8 July.

The sculptures had been situated along the walking trail area and officers are now turning to the public for help.

Images can be seen via the Devon & Cornwall Police website here.

Anybody with information that may assist the investigation is asked to contact Devon and Cornwall Police by calling 101 or visiting our website quoting reference 50240168225.